3 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
4 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

5 * * *

6 MARK COLLINS,

Case No. 3:20-cv-00147-MMD-WGC

7 Petitioner,

ORDER

8 v.

9 STATE OF NEVADA, et al.,

10 Respondents.

11 This is a closed habeas corpus action under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. The Court dismissed
12 this action because it was redundant to Collins v. Baca, Case No. 3:20-cv-00066-MMD-
13 WGC, which challenged Petitioner's custody under the same state-court judgment of 14 conviction.

15 Petitioner now has filed a motion for reconsideration (ECF No. 7). He states that 16 Collins v. Baca arises from a challenge to the computation of time that he had filed in the 17 First Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada. He also states that the current action
18 is a challenge to the judgment of conviction of the Eighth Judicial District Court of the State
19 of Nevada. Petitioner argues that he thus had two different cases from two different courts.

20 For federal habeas corpus, what matters is the custody under a state-court
21 judgment of conviction. See 28 U.S.C. § 2254(a). Even if he challenged the computation
22 of time in the First Judicial District and challenged the validity of judgment in the Eighth
23 Judicial District, in both federal cases he is challenging his custody under the same state-
24 court judgment of conviction. Petitioner needs to raise all of his grounds for relief in one
25 federal habeas corpus petition. When the Court dismissed this action, it dismissed it
26 without prejudice to Collins v. Baca. The Court did not hold that Petitioner may not raise 27 his challenge to the judgment of conviction in any proceeding. Instead, Petitioner may 28 seek leave to raise his constitutional challenges and his computational challenges in an

1 amended petition in Collins v. Baca. Consequently, the Court sees no reason to reconsider
2 its dismissal of this action.

3 It therefore is ordered that Petitioner's motion for reconsideration (ECF No. 7) is 4 denied.

5 DATED THIS 31st day of March 2020.
